501. Statement A: I agree with Senator McCain that illegal immigrants should be granted amnesty and a pathway to citizenship after our borders are secured, and it was one of the factors that led me to vote for him. Statement B: I disagree with Senator McCain and oppose granting amnesty and a pathway to citizenship to illegal immigrants, even if our borders are secured, but I voted for him because overall I thought he was the better candidate. Statement C: Senator McCain's views on dealing with illegal immigration were not a factor in my decision to vote for him.

503. Statement A: Legalizing, or granting amnesty to 13 million illegal immigrants would further harm the interests of struggling American workers, and put even greater strains on public resources like health care and education. Statement B: Legalizing, or granting amnesty to 13 million illegal immigrants would help our economy recover and would ease the strains on public resources like health care and education.
