While 210,000 Wisconsinites are out of work, Rep. Paul Ryan claims there's a "labor shortage." He wants to grant amnesty to illegal immigrants & import cheap foreign labor.

Plenty of Labor. Few Jobs.

Unemployment is 6.8%

Wis. ranks 42nd for job creation in the nation.

Manufacturing Wages Have Dropped 4.6% since 2001.

A Crisis of Underemployment

Many Wisconsin workers are stuck in jobs beneath their education or skill level, making it even tougher for lower-skilled workers to find employment.

In the next decade, of estimated jobs will only require a high school diploma or less.

In 2010:

- 56% parking attendants
- 44% bartenders
- 42% servers
- 37% retail clerks
- 33% cashiers

Had some college or an associates degree.

It's Worse in Ryan's District

8% average unemployment across counties in his district.

12.6 unemployed workers for every job opening in Milwaukee.

Less than 1/2 of adult black men in Milwaukee were employed in 2010.

Illegal Immigration & Jobs

An estimated 95,000 illegal immigrants live in Wisconsin

And have taken 68,055 jobs in the state.

Tell Rep. Ryan:

No Amnesty & No Guest workers!
