HOLD THEIR FEET TO THE FIRE RADIO ROW 2019

THE MOST RESPECTED VOICE IN THE IMMIGRATION DEBATE.
FAIRus.org

The Talk Radio Institution You Built. So Join Us Again in September.

In 2006, several talk hosts gathered with FAIR for the first radio row to educate one another and listeners about the immigration issue, and to put the squeeze on open-borders lawmakers.

Things have changed a lot since then. F2F now hosts 70 stations and has become the largest annual radio row and the centerpiece of the immigration debate each year for the media. Another change has been that many of you have become immigration experts in your own right - out of necessity given this is a front-burner issue. As a result, your listeners are more informed and engaged than ever. Unfortunately, several things have not changed - a stagnant status quo of lax enforcement and open borders, obstructionist (and increasingly radical) Democratic positions, hostile courts and a mainstream media pumping out lies and attacks.

So, in September, we're right back at it discussing, debating, sorting truth from fiction, hearing first-hand accounts, updating ourselves and offering reasonable solutions. Barriers have to be built, asylum loopholes closed, more resources brought to bear, and the rule of law enforced. Most importantly, Americans - not special interests - need to be heard from. And no doubt by September, there will be even more immigration crises unexpectedly emerging that will set the stage for the 2020 election.

Please accept my invitation to join us again in Washington for the Hold Their Feet to the Fire Radio Row on September 25th and 26th, 2019. We're limited to 75 hosts on the broadcast floor and each year the event fills up sooner. Call now to reserve a broadcast booth and complimentary hotel room.

In most instances, FAIR will cover your travel expenses. Why? Because our generous, patriotic, 501(c)(3) donors understand the vital role talk radio plays in our democracy and role you play in keeping voters informed, particularly on this issue.

If you haven't attended before please consider doing so. I promise you an enriching, fun, flawless event where you will make a difference at a critical time.
